Mayor's Office of Cable & Communications/TV25 Shares Programming with CCBC-TV in Baltimore County

Baltimore, MD (September 20, 2007) – The Mayor's Office of Cable & Communications/TV25 is now sharing two award-winning original television programs with CCBC-TV Channel 71 in Baltimore County.

"TV25 is pleased to share its own 'Interfaith Roundtable' and 'X-Change' with Baltimore County", stated Marilyn Harris-Davis, Executive Director of the Mayor's Office of Cable & Communications. "We appreciate Channel 71's willingness to air these award winning shows."

"Interfaith Roundtable" is a monthly half-hour roundtable discussion providing a unique opportunity to explore contemporary issues from a variety of faith perspectives. The program seeks ways to help viewers incorporate values and ethics in their everyday lives. "Interfaith Roundtable" is hosted by Dr. Lenneal Henderson, the Distinguished Professor of Government and Public Administration and Senior Fellow at the William Donald Schaefer Center for Public Policy and a Senior Fellow in the Hoffberger Center for Professional Ethics at the University of Baltimore.

"Interfaith Roundtable" is the recipient of the Communicator Award and the National Association of Telecommunications Officers and Advisors (NATOA) award. "Interfaith Roundtable" will be on CCBC-TV on Tuesday evenings at 6:30 PM and on Saturday evenings at 10:00 PM.

"X-Change" is a monthly half-hour show which provides a forum in which to discuss issues of race, class, gender, culture and ethnicity. This program fosters greater understanding between various factions of the community in a viable exchange of information. "X-Change" is hosted by Alvin Gillard, the Director of the Baltimore Community Relations Commission which is responsible for combating unlawful discrimination in employment, public accommodation, housing, education, health and welfare services.

“X-Change” is the recipient of the NATOA Award and the Beacon Award. “X-Change” will run on CCBCC-TV on Thursday evenings at 11:00 PM and on Saturday evenings at 7:00 PM.
